President's Corner

September 2019

Hard to believe it is September already. Seems like yesterday we were still talking about and dealing with snow. Last weekend it was hot for the Gypsy Tour. Typical Aug. temps and then there was 30 degrees at 6,000 ft. yesterday. Autumn is upon us, and soon we will be talking heated gear. Wild.

The Lady rider's day at A&S on the 10th went well. RCB provided the cooks and we did our best to keep up with the throngs of hungry folk. Maggie Mini joined with High Road Adventure's booth to spread the word on RCB membership. We shall see how that works out. Thanks Maggie! Our lady riders are the best.

Had a great time at the Sacramento Mile. Not cheap but a great time. And, there's still about five races left at Fast Friday in the Auburn Fairgrounds. Great family atmosphere and very reasonable. They have a website so check out the schedule. Extreme sidecars later this month. Those are fun races.

The Tahoe Chill was excellent as always. The Klauschie's and Harris's did a great job. The food was outstanding, and Hello Bear made a guest appearance in the campsite Sat. night to try Steve's homemade salsa. He liked it and left tooth marks in the ice chest. Thankfully he wasn't interested in our adult beverages. Friday night was very active bear wise, and that seemed to thin the campsite quite a bit as it was much quieter Sat. Seems a lot of folks don't care for bears in their camps. Thanks again to Jack, Lynell, Jenny and Steve! Great weekend!

Eight members ventured to Lassen Nat'l Park last weekend after a scheduling snafu (don't ask) That park is drop dead beautiful. Thanks to Just Bob Rasters for cookin up Sat's. dinner. Thanks to Rand Olson for donating the firewood. We were nice and toasty at elevation. Bob Highfill and I did a drive by of Rand's as he is enjoying Alaska right now. Thanks Rand. Oh, don't cross double yellows and don't speed in Lassen. (don't ask) lol.

ATTENTION!!!!!!

Just a few weeks before Manchester Beach and the Stofer Memorial. The club meeting is at the KOA on Sat. the 4th. So, don't be surprised if no one is at Susie's on Sat. Fred has been toiling in his laboratory for his signature Bloody Marys. Please signup NOW if you plan on dinner on Sat. The club shares in the cost along with the co-pays of the members and it is important to know who is attending. If you're newer to the club and have not attended Manchester, you must. It is easily our nicest event. IMHO. Come to Manchester and see!

Ride safe, ride far, and ride often! See Ya.

Mike

2019 Tahoe Chill

Many thanks to Gordy for keeping track of the first opportunity to reserve the camp sites. We might not have a Tahoe Chill if we miss the start of reservations by even a few hours.

Special thanks to Lynell and Jenny Harris for grocery shopping and cooking dinner Friday and Saturday evenings. Jenny's rum cake was back by popular demand for desert Saturday.

Curious about the fare?

We had a taco bar with Spanish rice and refried beans Friday with Steve's homemade salsa and chips. Thanks Steve. Washed down by a cold Pacifico, 805 or IPA.

Saturday was a “poorman’s” surf and turf with bakers, fixins’ and salad.

Ralph pitched in and cooked the tri tip on the fire pit so I could attend to other chores.
